Tzivos Hashem Update

Dear Parents, 'e

Boruch Hashem many children registered for Tzivos Hashem. Mission sheets were already handed out and soldiers (children) are already changing their lives to act according to Hashem's ways. This incentive program is designed to encourage your child to act according to Hashem's command.

We are conquering land starting with Shabbos Mevorchim Tehillim.

This week every soldier received a Shabbos Mevorchim Tehillim form.

Please help your child choose which ladder is appropriate for him. Our Cheder Chabad of Monsey base have a collective goal of how many minutes to spend saying Tehillim and how many Kapitlach to be said. Please bring back the form to school no later than Monday.

This Tuesday will be a special video rally stressing the importance of the power of children. Children will be able to say the 12 Pesukim, sing along to a chassidshe niggun and hear a sicha of the Rebbe.

If you have not yet done so, please register your child for Tzivos Hashem. Instructions on how to register can be found online at www.ChederMonsey.org. To receive your Childs 20 digit code or if you have any questions please email: TzivosHashem@chedermonsey.org.

I am looking forward for an exciting year in Hashem's Army.

Class News

Rabbi Silverstein
Second Grade - Limudei Kodesh

Kitah Beis started off a wonderful year. We finished Perek Yud Beis in Parshas Lech Lecha!!

In honor of Rosh Hashana 2nd grade will be going this Sunday on an exciting trip to visit an active beehive and learn many facts about honey and bees. This trip is thanks to all the talmidim in Kitah Bais for earning 1,000 points, earning them this wonderful trip.

Class News

Mr. Pessin
7th & 8th Grade ELA

Mr. Pessin Joins the Community at Cheder Chabad

I am honored to become part of the Cheder school community and to offer my services as a History/ Writing instructor to a community for which I have a great deal of respect. This is my 44th year of teaching. My most recent assignment was at Yeshiva Zichron Yaacov where I taught every grade, but for the last 4 years of the school's existence, I taught the twelfth grade boys a Rockland Community College off-site course in history. Additionally, I taught in NYC for 31 years and retired after teaching social studies and English to middle school students, primarily in the Bronx and Manhattan.

My mother and father, who were born in Austria-Hungary and Russia respectively, spoke Yiddish as their mother tongue. Like most early Jewish immigrants, they went through the transition of first living on the Lower East Side and then moving to Brooklyn. My grandmother was from an important Shtetel in Poland named Duckler, which although it no longer exists, I found on the list of villages located outside the yard at Yad Vashem. My grandfather perished there in the early days of the Holocaust when the Germans invaded Poland.

As a teacher, I feel I have a great deal to offer. I am experienced. I am also committed to give my students the best that I have. I have already met and called virtually every parent in both the 7th and 8th grades. I have established a good rapport with students, parents, administration, and other staff members. I am dedicated to do the best I can to ensure that every boy will be competent in writing by the time they leave my class at the end of the school year. It is my belief that teaching and learning involve a partnership among the teacher, the student and the parent, all working together for a positive result. I look forward to a wonderful year.

With warm regards,

Mr. Menachem Mendel Pessin

A DELIGHTFUL SHABBOS (II)

L'Chavod Shabbos Kodesh

Chazal say that whoever makes Shabbos a day of delight is given an unbounded heritage, is saved from the servitude of galus, and is granted his heart's desires.

The Alshich points out that "making Shabbos a day of delight" implies that what one seeks to do is to enhance the spirit of Shabbos, and not merely to indulge in his own pleasures. Indeed, the more one delights in the ruchniyus of Shabbos and abstains from mundane matters, the more does he add to the kedusha of Shabbos.

In this spirit, the Alshich explains a story in the Gemara, that on erev Shabbos the amora Rav Nachman ben Yitzchak would carry bundles of food in and out, saying, "If Rav Ami and Rav Assi visited me, would I not carry for them?"

The deeper significance in this comparison is that just as Rav Ami and Rav Assi would have actually eaten the food and been delighted by it, so too, when we uplift our neshama yeseira with the Shabbos foods, we bring delight to the Shabbos within us.

(שבת קיט ע"א, תורת משה תצוה לא, יג)

The Chida writes: Someone may come and say, "I derive enjoyment from foul talk and unsavory conduct – and this is my oneg Shabbos." This is mistaken, for we are commanded to bring delight to Shabbos, and such conduct, only causes her pain.

(מדבר קדמות ערך ענג)

Higher Pursuits

Chassidus explains that eating on Shabbos is a holy experience and is free of selfish interests. Nevertheless, if a person focuses on the physical, he will be drawn into it.

(המשך תער"ב ח"ב עמ' אקכה, לקו"ש חל"א ע' 247)

The Baal Shem Tov once showed his talmidim a man who was sitting at his own Shabbos table and resplendent in his Shabbos garb – but what they saw with their holy eyes was an ox! The reason was that since the man was investing his entire being in enthusiastically eating the meat of an ox, that is what he was at that moment.

(סו"מ קונטרסים ח"א ע' 170)

The Mezritcher Maggid offers a maschal for this:

A great king announced a day of nationwide feasting and celebration, and gave orders that the wishes of each of his subjects be carried out. Amongst them there was a leper. He asked that the king give him two mounds of cold manure in which he could lie, to seek relief from his leprosy.

The king's servants berated him, "Fool that you are! You could have asked the king for all the pleasures of the world, so for your leprosy you could have requested treatment from an expert doctor!"

Nevertheless, the king instructed that the man's request be fulfilled, for a king's orders must follow through, regardless of this man's foolishness.

(אור תורה קדג)

The venerable chossid Reb Hillel of Paritch was once a Shabbos guest in the home of a man who didn't eat cholent. When Reb Hillel questioned him about his practice, he explained that he was forbidden to do so by order of his doctors.

Reb Hillel was not afraid: "Eat now. It's on my shoulders!"

Full of trust, the man took a spoonful and tasted the cholent. At that point Reb Hillel stopped him: "Enough! If you wish to eat more, that's on your shoulders..."

(שמו"ס ח"ג ע' 232)

As the youngest child of the Friediker Rebbe, Rebbetzin Sheina was the subject of much attention. Once, at a meal in the home of her grandfather, the Rebbe Rashab, he told her that on Shabbos she must eat, stroll and do everything l'chavod Shabbos. The little girl replied that she could do this with everything except for sleeping, since while one is sleeping, one is asleep...

From this story the Rebbe derived a lesson: With the right amount of effort beforehand, everyone is capable of sleeping in honor of Shabbos.

(תו"מ ח"ג ע' 6, חמ"ב ע' 113)

Holy Food

Rebbetzin Menucha Rochel, the saintly daughter of the Mittlerer Rebbe, was particular not to throw out any Shabbos food, and instead would offer it to her family members and guests. She attributed this practice to a tradition from the Alter Rebbe:

One Friday night a guest joined the Alter Rebbe's seuda. When the soup was served, the guest took a spoonful but immediately stopped eating because of its saltiness. The Alter Rebbe was deep in dveikus, and when he came to, he asked the guest why he wasn't eating. Before the guest had a chance to respond, the Alter Rebbe helped him by adding some salt to his bowl, and again fell into dveikus. This repeated itself several times.

Finally the guest managed to tell the Alter Rebbe that the soup was too salty and inedible. The Alter Rebbe immediately took the soup, ate it up, and told the guest, "No Shabbos food is not good, or harmful to one's health. One should not throw out Shabbos food!"

(ס' הצאצאים ע' 101)

Reb Yaakov Yosef of Polonnoye, a senior talmid of the Baal Shem Tov, once took his wife along with him on a visit to his Rebbe.

When she returned home, everyone wanted to know what secrets she had learned in Mezhibuzh from the Baal Shem Tov's wife. She told them, "I learned to meditate upon the secret of the ketores while preparing the kugel for Shabbos."

A WAY OF LIFE

Rabbi Chaim Hillel Raskin
Moreh Hora'ah - Beis Horaa Rechovot

Shmitas Ksafim

If I can't make a pruzbul on Erev Rosh HaShana, can I make it earlier?

- The Torah says that the absolving of loans (shmita) takes place "at the end of seven years."<sup>1</sup> Chazal explain that the possuk refers to the end of the seventh year<sup>2</sup>.
- However, some Rishonim<sup>3</sup> claim that although the loan is not absolved (meaning that the borrower must pay it and the lender may accept it), the prohibition to collect the loan begins from the beginning of shmita. Similarly, they say, one may not make a pruzbul during that year since that is a step towards collecting the loan.
- The Alter Rebbe<sup>4</sup> paskens that l'hatchilah one should make a pruzbul at the end of the sixth year to satisfy all opinions. The Rebbe would often publicize this psak of the Alter Rebbe and asked the chassidim to publicize it as well.<sup>5</sup>
- Pruzbul is customarily done on Erev Rosh Hashana so that (a) it will include all loans given until then, (b) one doesn't come to forget, and (c) it is easier since the 'Beis Din' is already gathered.<sup>6</sup> However one who will not be able to do it on Erev Rosh Hashana may do it earlier.
- Women<sup>7</sup> who lent money need to make a pruzbul. Married women may rely on their husband's pruzbul, except when the loan was from their personal money. Children are included in their fathers pruzbul<sup>8</sup> as long as they are financially dependent on their father. A father/husband can be a shliach for his wife/daughter to make a pruzbul for them.

OUR HEROES

Reb Bereh Volf Koz'venikov

The chossid Reb Dov Zev (Bereh Volf) Koz'venikov was a great chossid and the Rov of Yaketrinaslav (his successor was Reb Levik, the Rebbe's father). As a young man he was a chossid of the Tzemach Tzedek and then of the Rebbe Maharash and Rebbe Rashab. He was a great gaon in Nigleh and Chassidus and a great oved. He was a very modest and humble person but still became known as an exceptional man. He passed away on כ"ד טבת תרס"ח (1908). When his kever was moved twenty five years later, his body was found whole and complete.

Once, during a visit to the Rebbe Maharash, Reb Bereh Volf came to the home of the Rebbe Rashab to farbreng. On that occasion the Rebbe Rashab asked him, "What is a chossid?" Reb Bereh Volf answered, "A chossid is someone who is dedicated to seeking the good of his fellow. The chinuch and guidance of the older chassidim should be used to imbue the children of the younger chassidim with a feeling of seeking the good of one's fellow with absolute dedication. When doing this one receives the greatest reward.

"I can attest to this," Reb Bereh Volf continued, "I was born and raised in a small village near Dobryanka, in the region of Chernigov. In this village were lamdanim and great chassidim who understood Nigleh and Chassidus. Reb Yoel Zalman, one of the great lomdim and chassidim, was in charge of my education. He was one of the people who imbued me with the good trait of seeking the good of another. When I became twelve years old, I already had a broad knowledge in learning and I was well versed in many ma'amorei Chazal.

"In that village there were many Jewish families that were ignorant, to the extent of not even knowing the meaning of the davening. My heart was filled with sympathy for these people and so I organized a shiur to teach them the siddur. In the course of the shiur, I would include different agados from Gemara and Midrash. This carried on for three years and I kept it up even though it was very hard for me since I had a stutter. As the years carried on, it became much harder for me to speak, especially after I lost my father. I nevertheless continued learning and farbrenging with the simple people. When I turned seventeen, I went to Lubavitch to visit the Tzemach Tzedek. In yeichidus, I told the Rebbe about the shiur and complained about my speech impediment. The Rebbe thought for a while and said, 'Carry on with your conduct with the simple people and become a melamed.' He went on to bless me with the ability to explain and teach, and with a 'smooth-mouth'.

"When I went out of the Rebbe's room, I could not recognize myself. I started talking like a regular person and I could not understand how. When I came home and publicly taught the three ma'amorim that I heard from the Rebbe; everyone was in total shock. I told them, "I am the Rebbe's golem. The Maharal made a golem out of clay, and the Rebbe made a golem out of flesh."

When the Friediker Rebbe told this story, he added, "We, who knew Reb Bereh Volf and remember his mouth that 'emanated pearls', could have some understanding of the reward of a chossid who is dedicated to the good of his fellow."

A MOMENT WITH THE REBBE

No Easy Way Out

Reb Yosef Goldman, a Shliach to South Africa, related:

"When I was a bochur in Montreal, the mashpi'im would encourage us to review Tanya ba'al peh, or other parts of Torah, while walking in the street. They explained that this does not only make good use of the time and save us from seeing inappropriate sights, but it also elevates the street that we walk on.

"When I went into yeichidus for my birthday, I asked the Rebbe whether singing a chassidish niggun to myself could accomplish the same as words of Torah.

"The Rebbe replied: 'if you will sing while you walk, passersby may think that there is something amiss with you...'

"Although I had meant to suggest that I should sing quietly to myself, I understood from the Rebbe's response that I should not try to look for the easy way out."
