Yartzeit of Rebbetzin Chana

HER NAME: CHANA

Rebbetzin Chana's name stands for the 3 Mitzvos of a woman:

חלה
 Keeping all the food in the house, Kosher

ח

גדה
 Raising a Jewish family

נ

הדלקת נרות
 Filling the house with the light of Torah and Mitzvos

In 1965, about 40 years ago, on Vov Tishrei, Rebbetzin Chana, the Rebbe's mother passed away. The Rebbetzin lived in New York for the last 17 years of her life. But what happened before that? Let's learn a little about her life: Rebbetzin Chana's husband, R' Levi Yitzchak, was a very great Rav. He lived in the city of Yekatrinislav, but he was really Rav over the whole Ukraine. Rebbetzin Chana helped her husband a lot in the 30 years that he was Rav. She spoke Russian very well and she got along with everyone she met. Sadly, R' Levi Yitzchak, was arrested by the KGB and sent into exile to a place called Chile (pronounced Chi-lee). Rebbetzin Chana decided that she would join her husband in exile. She traveled for 5 days until she was reunited with her husband. They lived together in a muddy, dirty hovel, that they shared with another couple and their baby. On 2 Nissan, R' Levik wanted to write some Chasidus in honor of the Rashab's Yartzeit, but he had no ink or paper. Rebbetzin Chana saw how much this bothered her husband, so she traveled to a nearby city and managed to get two notebooks and some powder for ink. When that ran out, she made her own ink by cooking herbs from the field, and R' Levik wrote his Chiddushim in the margins of the Seforim that he had with him. After R' Levik passed away, the Chassidim helped smuggle Rebbetzin Chana out of Russia. When she left, she took her husband's writings with her, and they were later printed. Rebbetzin Chana was a Tzadekes. She was a true Aishes Chayil. In her own quiet way, she made a difference just like her husband. She stood by her husband even in the harshest conditions, she stayed with him until the end. Rebbetzin Chana, she is the mother of our Rebbe, and she is an example for all of us.

EZ PASS PROGRAM

As we welcomed שנת תשע"ז we were introduced to the theme of our year. The theme which will take us through

- each month working on improving and perfecting different important מידות.
- Each student in the Elementary Divisions—Grades 1-5 was handed an EZ-Pass card so they can travel in the EZ pass lane. Chavi Holtsberg figured out why our theme this year is “EZ Pass”. You guessed too!!! Because ע"ז—תשע"ז is like EZ 😊.
- Mrs. Rosenbluh told us that when she came to America, she would travel around and see the EZ Pass sign. She couldn't understand what EZ means. In England the Z is called “Zed” and so E-Zed doesn't really sound like anything but EZ—Eee Zee is like “Easy”.
- While working on our מידות this year, we should find it really “EZ” and have a very successful year אי"ה.

We can't wait to see which roads we take and which tunnels and bridges we pass while working on different מידות this year.

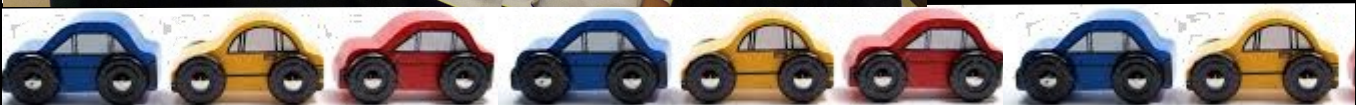

We are so proud of all the students that brought back the ראש השנה checklist. Look out for the יו"כ checklist אי"ה on Monday.

is ב"ה moving quickly in ולהשכיל! We introduced the concept of שרשים. Different food items were brought in and the girls had to find out the common thread amongst them.

Preschool NEWS

In honor of our preschoolers made and wrote with "ink", just like רעבעצין חנה did, from wild berries picked from a bush. They were able to experience first hand what מסירת נפש רעבעצין חנה had to make sure that her husband was able to continue with his writings.

Wishing you a gut Shabbos and גמר חתימה טובה.
