MAKING HAVDALLAH CANDLES

by: Rochel Krasnjanski—Grade 6

The רבי רש"ב told his חסידים to be נרות להאיר, we therefore made an ה בדלה candle. When we had entered the lunch room we each got song papers about the רבי רש"ב, in honor of his birthday. We learned the song. Rabbi Grossbaum was there with two bowls that had hot wax in them. Each girl got two hangers, bolts and two strings that were attached to the hangers. We got in line and dipped our strings and bolts. Then the bolts were cut off and we took our strings off the hanger. We had four strings with wax to braid, curl up, bend and make it into a professional ה בדלה candle. We can use it every מוצאי שבת to bring more light into the world as the רבי רש"ב suggested. Thank you Rabbi Grossbaum for helping us make such beautiful ה בדלה candles and thank you Mrs. Gluckwosky for making such a beautiful, meaningful and fun program.

הכנה לתפילה כתה ו'

Once there was a כהן who was secretly G-d fearing and manage to conceal his good deeds. He had 10 children, six boys and 4 girls. Every day he would daven and bend down in the dirt and beg Hashem for compassion that his children should not come to sin or do something unbecoming. It was said that this כהן ended up becoming with Ezra from diaspora to rebuild the בית המקדש. He didn't leave the world until for 50 years his children and grandchildren were high priests in the בית המקדש. From this we can see the power of a parent's davening which included in the wording of this ברכה and our children and your children's children.

This week in honor of חשוון כ' we explored the idea of being "נרות להאיר". We created a beautiful bulletin board titled; "A CHOSSID is a Lamplighter". Each student wrote about different ideas that she can do in order to be a "Lamplighter". May you continue to have much נחת from your daughters, our Lamplighters!

Moussia Silber

Let's say there is a sick lade in the hospital. I go and visit her before Shabbos candles with her. This way I can be a lamplighter of the world.

Shira Saragossi

If I see someone sitting at a park who looks sad I will go over to her and ask her what's wrong. If she says that the other girls didn't let her play, then I would go over to the girls and ask them to let her play.

Shaina Stiefel

I can be a lamplighter when my friend are being mean to a girl and I make sure to

Rivka Hirsch

Let's say it's a hot day and your playing with your friends and even though they are not dressed צניעותדיק you should dress צניעותדיק anyway.

PRESCHOOL NEWS

Dear Parents,

שרה lends itself so well to preschool learning. חסד comes easily to young children and flourishes with encouragement. We made candles, felt the softness of "clouds" of cotton balls, and smelled the delicious aroma of challah baking to eat on Shabbos. On כ' חשוון we celebrated the birthday of the רבי רש"ב with a beautiful Farbrengen and crown. Each child in Cheder Chabad is a lamplighter and will continue to add light to the world in order to bring Moshiach. We discussed how we can be lamplighters in many different places. The kinderlach came up with such beautiful answers.

Middos Mentch skill of the week: Understanding feelings of others. Our puppet friends Goldy and Gedalia really helped us learn how to identify the feelings of others. We learned that our body can provide hints regarding how someone is feeling. We practiced our cute song to help us reinforce this skill.

TTTO: Dip the apple in the honey
There are 4 ways
There are 4 ways
There are 4 ways that we can tell
How someone is feeling
How someone is feeling
And if he/she is not feeling well

1. Look at their body
2. Look at their face
3. Listen to what they have to say
4. Listen to their tone of voice

And everything will be okay
