OUR CHEDER'S VOICE

CHEDER CHABAD BOYS DIVISION

Dear Parents,

This Shabbos is Shabbos mevarchim Elul. The month of Elul first and foremost marks the love of Hashem to the Yidden. The reason we granted a month to make up for our shortcomings is because of Hashem's love for us. Since we are so special, Hashem provides us with the safety provided by a "city of refuge."

The foundation of personal growth and self actualization is the increased awareness and appreciation of our value. The more significant, loved and important we are, the more reason there is for us to improve and clear away those things that hold us back from being connected to Hashem.

Often, when a child does something wrong, our first response is to put them down. Our thinking is that if we make them feel bad enough, they won't repeat the bad behavior again. Chassidus teaches us that the effective path is to lift up the person who made a mistake, increasing their self worth rather than diminishing it.

In explaining the famous maimer of the Alter Rebbe, where he introduces the idea of "the King in the Field," the Rebbe applies the above mentioned idea to explain the sequence of the maimer. The first idea shared in the discourse is Hashem's great love for the Yidden.

Let us apply this idea to ourselves and others to the extent that it become our go to reaction to mistakes. With this new approach we will merit to see our children's success becoming increasingly more proud of their heritage as Yidden in general and as chassidei Chabad in particular.
