Letter from the Menahel:

Dear Parents,

The posuk says, "שמאלו תחת לראשי וימיני תחבקני" his left hand is beneath my head and his right-hand hugs me". Today, we transition from the first half of the phrase to the second, from the left hand, the awe-inspiring days of Rosh Hashonoh and Yom Kippur, to the right hand, Hashem's closeness and embrace expressed joyously and celebrated with lavish meals, singing, and dancing.

Chassidus teaches us how אהבה ויראה love and awe, are the constant underpinnings of our life. And yet, respect, awe, fear, and discipline come first and serve as the cornerstone of our Divine service and all other areas of service. This is reflected in the Jewish calendar year with Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur coming first and serving as the foundation for this special, yom tov-filled month.

As our children spend the next two weeks at home, they will experience much love and joy. The chol hamoed trip, special family time, and an evening out celebrating simchas beis hashoeivah coupled with an overall sense of festivity. Yet, as Yidden, we always remember that we have responsibilities to Hashem that come first. From the first moment of the day when we say modeh ani like a chosid, until krias shema sheal hamita, let us be the upright example for our children and let us set the expectations for them not as a burden but as a privilege and a responsibility.

A lichtigen shabbos un a freilichen Yom tov,

Rabbi Kaplan
