CHEDER CHABAD BOY'S DIVISION

LETTER FROM THE MENAHEL:

Dear Parents,

Today marks day 10,001 since Gimmel Tammuz, תשנ"ד and I would like to share a thought about this milestone.

In the summer of 1985 the Rebbe famously explained that with every day that passes, the impact of the Frierdiker Rebbe on his chassidim and the world at large increases. The Rebbe explained that the Frierdiker Rebbe isn't farther away, rather, with every day that passes he is closer and more powerful than ever.

The growth of the Rebbe's impact is clear to us all. The Rebbe's chassidim now reach the farthest corners of the earth and their impact intensifies with every passing day.

Let us apply this message to the sphere of chinuch. We see how Yiddishkeit permeates the life of a toddler receiving his first pair of tzitzis or his / her first siddur. These young children are so excited and overjoyed by their connection to Yiddishkeit.

As they grow older some see this enthusiasm fade and make room for personal traits and interests outside of Yiddishkeit. These infringe on their wholehearted and total connection and dedication to Yiddishkeit.

By applying the Rebbe's messag we can reimagine "growing up" and we should strive to keep all areas of growth and development as part of our Yiddishkeit. We should grow as Yidden every day, intensifying our connection to Hashem and dedicating ourselves more totally to the Rebbe's vision of living with Moshiach every day.

Please encourage your children to say Tehlim this Shabbos mevarchim and send a note with them after Shabbos so that they can also inspire their friends to add in Shabbos mevarchim tehilim month to month.

Wishing you a good Shabbos,
Rabbi Kaplan
