LETTER FROM THE MENAHEL:

Dear Parents,

Dreams are a key theme of the parshiyos of these weeks. I would like to highlight one of the many lessons that the Rebbe emphasized regarding these dreams. The dreams of Yidden involve work, like it says in the posuk "and behold we were binding bundles in the field."

Many people have dreams and hopes that involve not working. They hope for a time in life that they will be able to enjoy life and have others care for all their needs. This aspiration is a secular dream aspiration.

The Friediker Rebbe said regarding the days of Moshiach "in those days, people will yearn for the work of golus".

A Yid hopes and yearns for the opportunity to partner with Hashem by building and improving the world and to toil in his service to Hashem.

The talmidim were honored this week by a visit by our dear Rabbi Lesches who distributed Chanukah gelt to each talmid individually. We wish Rabbi Lesches yaarich yomim al mamlachto, in good health.

Being that Chanukah is a yom tov of hallel vehodooh, I wish to thank the Rebbies for their absolute dedication to a chassidisher chinuch and to reaching every individual child.

A freilichen Chanukah,

Rabbi Kaplan

The Results are In

Dear participant, I hope your Chanukah is going well.

The results for the Maseches Ta'anis test are in, and they look amazing!

Maseches Ta'anis has a lot of details to remember, and learning the Masechta is a huge accomplishment.

This is what Mishna Beyadi is all about.

The boys that scored higher than 80 on this test, qualified for the Masechta raffle. Congratulation to Menachem Bongart from Cheder Chabad of Monsey on winning a משנה בהירה on Maseches Ta'anis!

Mazel Tov!

As of now, everyone should have received their score for the Maseches Ta'anis test. If you have not, please reach out to us and we will send that to you.

What's next?

Everyone should be working hard on Maseches Megillah. I encourage everyone to do lots of chazara (review) of the Mishnayos. If you have a coach or a teacher, have them ask you questions so that you are prepared for the next test, which will be on January 10th.

Happy Birthday

Mattisyahu Bongart, Yossi Goldsmith, Avi Greenberg

Moshe Polinger, and Yitzchak Landa

May you have a Shnas Hatzlochah!
