CHEDER CHABAD BOY'S DIVISION

YOU DID IT!

Under Rabbi Brawer's leadership and your tenacious support, we successfully reached the ambitious goal of five hundred thousand dollars. We even whizzed by a bonus round adding a tenth to the original goal. Thank you Rabbi Brawer for your leadership and may Hashem give you the strength to take the cheder through the greatest expansion in all departments ever!

All of us are grateful for your support and are here to follow up on the second section of the statement im yesh kemach, yesh Torah! Thank you to the cheder staff and students who worked tirelessly around the clock, reaching out to donors and following through. Thank you Rabbi Shusterman for maximizing the 36-hour window on behalf of cheder Chabad!

LETTER FROM THE MENAHEL:

Dear Parents,

The ancient custom of initiating children into cheder called areinfirenish, includes reading the opening pesukim of this week's Parshah, Parshas Vayikro. The chumash of the korbonos opens with korbonos nedovoh, voluntary offerings.

In initiating our children to Torah learning and performing mitzvos behidur, an important foundation is to introduce them to the idea of doing more than required. Here is one way to look at it: Hashem left some things up to us so that we can show Him what we can do and how special we are from our own initiative. He doesn't have to tell us everything.

I once heard a story from our very own Rabbi Lesches shlita about a letter a group of bochurim wrote to the Rebbe when he was a bochur. Bochurim wanted to add an additional period to sefer at night and they asked the Rebbe if this was okay. The Rebbe's responded that there should be a time of day when it is up to the bochurim to learn from their own initiative and they should not make an additional sefer.

What a special lesson! And how beautifully it links with the order of this week's parshah.

Wishing you a good Shabbos

Rabbi Kaplan
