CHEDER CHABAD BOY'S DIVISION

LETTER FROM THE MENAHEL:

Dear Parents,

This coming week, on 17 Iyar, we will complete a full cycle of Rambam. The Rebbe taught us to celebrate the siyum hoRambam berov am hadras melech, as many people as possible should join the celebration. At cheder, we are planning to have a siyum hoRambam with every single talmid present at one large gathering.

The Rebbe encouraged us to utilize the siyum as an occasion to get more people on board with learning Rambam for the coming machzor. This is why our messaging for the siyum is "I learn", the Rebbe gifted us with an entry level to limud hoRambam that is appropriate for everyone. The Rebbe explained that the reason he asked everyone to learn Rambam is to fulfill the mitzva of learning the entire Torah in the quickest way before Moshiach comes. May our learning Rambam bring the revelation of Moshiach immediately.

Please encourage your children to review the Pirkei Avos pisgomim that are included here. Every talmid who completes them accurately will receive a prize at the end of the 6 weeks.

Meichayil el choyil

This past week, we launched a special program to motivate our talmidim to daven and learn with more chayus. The talmidim are very excited about it and the sound of Torah has reaching new heights. Talmidim are earning points by learning with vitality, following inside, and paying attention. Please ask your son about the program, how many coupons he has earned and keep him motivated to stat along for the ride.

We are looking forward to taking along every talmid on the trip.

Wishing you a good Shabbos,

Rabbi Kaplan

A PEEK AT OUR WEEK

Oh my! In Second Grade the weeks are flying by.

We added a Red Word, LAUGH, and did just that as the boys told over many jokes. The last of the long I - spelled IGH- was introduced. They know it very well. They are so brlGHt. In math, we began our unit on MONEY just in time. Daily dollars are being handed out by Cheder, rewarding success in learning and behavior. The momentum is going strong!! The boys are busy trading in bills of fives, tens and twenties. Also, they are choosing from the various Rebbe's photo on each bill. Ask your son to show you his stash. Looking forward to recess outdoors in the sun. Gut shab-bos!

What a week the talmidim of 4B had!! On Monday, we had a class trip to the Challenger Space Center in Airmont, where we took a simulated trip to the moon. The boys had the opportunity to conduct experiments and to experience different parts of a trip to the moon. Of course, they didn't float as we remained firmly planted on Earth the whole time. Some boys liked the simulations; others enjoyed making announcements over the "PA System" and others enjoyed the experiments. Many thanks to the mothers who helped with transportation: Mrs. Eisenberg, Mrs. Lustig, Mrs. Polinger and Mrs. Riesenberg. In Math we are progressing in changing improper fractions to mixed numbers and reducing larger fractions. There is a test coming up before Shavuos iy"H (after Lag Baomer). Of course the boys have been busy working on their State Reports and we have almost completed the unit on the Northeast in the Social Studies book. Congratulations to Gavi for completing his State Report almost THREE weeks early! Stay tuned for more exciting lessons next week be"H!

The fifth grade started a project of memorizing the place on the map of all 50 states. They outdid themselves!! Next week after taking a test, we will color them and then laminate the map and make it into a place mat! In math we spent this week reviewing all our skills with fractions. We completed a fun booklet with these skills. It was very interesting to learn what the years that preceded world war II were like, and why the American people were reluctant to enter the war when England and France came begging them to. We are up to unit 17 in our Wordly Wise and are hoping to complete the book by the end of the year. What a busy week we had! Have a great Shab-bos.
