CHEDER CHABAD BOY'S DIVISION

LETTER FROM THE MENAHEL:

Dear Parents,

In this week's Parshah, Shemos, Hashem expresses complete confidence in the Yidden while Moshe Rabbeinu seems to doubt them. In response to the doubt Moshe expressed, Hashem told Moshe his name. "Tell the Yidden that my name is 'אהי אשר אהי'. What is a name? A name is a tool that allows us to access and identify someone or something.

Our mission at cheder is to provide every student with the tools to gain access to Hashem and His Torah. By teaching the children how to call His name they are able to reach Him.

Imagine being in a foreign country and receiving directions in a language you don't understand. Will it be helpful? Imagine sitting in a classroom looking at a foreign text? Is that helpful?

Our shlichus is to provide our children with the incredible gift of access. To give them the skills and tools needed to enter into the world of Hashem's Torah connect and understand.

What do we ask of you, the parents? What part of the puzzle do you hold?

We ask you to instill a love of learning, curiosity and thirst for knowledge of Torah in your children. The only way a child will value what we offer is if they are interested. This is your powerful shlichus. All our students experience the same classroom experience, they are all given the same opportunity and skills needed to learn. However, some exude more interest, they value what we offer while others don't. It means little to them. Help us reach them by showing them that you value Torah.

Peek at the Week

What a week we had! We have completed the 0-1-2-5-10 and 11 Times Tables! (The hard ones are coming up....). In Science we are up to the last of the Five Senses, the sense of Touch. Thank you to the parents who sent in pictures of different foods so that we could complete the unit on the sense of Taste. We learned Jack Prelutsky's fun poem, "Spaghetti, Spaghetti", and discussed how the poem includes descriptive language that "speaks to our five Senses". Our writing also reflected this, as the boys wrote about their favorite foods, describing how it looks, smells and tastes. All that talk about yummy foods made us FEEL quite hungry! (Actually we learned the word, starve, in Wordly Wise!) In Reading we also learned how much you can learn through descriptive language. Even in Current Events, in News on the Run, we learned about the expression, "Under the Weather". I have been calling some parents about replenishing their sons' school supplies. Please ensure that your son has enough tissues for the cold weather sniffles, snacks with which to "refuel", and pencils with which to complete classwork. In addition, the Book Report Templates have gone out (due by" H Monday, January 27th), and there is a DOUBLE Spelling test next week. Have a guten Shabbos! Have a guten Shabbos ! Mrs. Eckstein - Grade 3
